TORIES RESPONSIBLE FOR P. G. E. AND DEBT RISES PREMIER PROVES TO HOUSE

Conservatives Who Attack Government Themselves to Blame for Entire Railway Problem and Large Part of Debt Increase, He Declares in Vigorous Defence of Administration; Flays Opposition Criticism and Shows How Government Is Relieving Taxpayers

Responsibility for the Pacific Great Eastern Railway problem with its pyramiding losses and for increase in provincial taxation were placed squarely on the shoulders of the Conservative Party Premier Oliver when he delivered a fighting defence of his Government in the Legislature yesterday.

Quoting from the actual records, the Premier showed how the Conservative Government had fastened the P.G.E. millstone around the neck of the Province and left a financial legacy responsible for the neck of the Province and left a financial legacy responsible for $29,273,000 of the total increase in the provincial debt under the Liberal regime. Despite this heritage, the present Government had rescued the Province from a sinkhole of reckless expenditure and restored its credit, he said. And now, when this had been done the Opposition was attacking the administration for raising the taxes and contracting the debt necessary to overcome the disastrous policies of the Conservative administration.

The Premier's contribution to the budget debate touched the highlights of all the criticism offered by the Conservatives during the present session. One by one he took the points raised by Conservative speakers and showed that in most cases they had absolutely misrepresented the Government's position. He completed his address by showing that the Hon. J. D. MacLean's budget offered enormous advantages to the people of the Province and would be as popular in its sphere as the famous Robb budget of the Federal Government.

HISREPRESENTATIONS

MISREPRESENTATIONS CHARGED

The Premier charged at the outset that most of the criticism of the budget indulged in by the Opposition for their employees was comedy of Parliament, he would use a much stronger term to apply to it, he remarked. When he listened to the speech of the Opposition leader, R. H. Pooley, which was a comedy of criticism, ending in the reading of doggerel, he wordered, he said, to what depths the Legislature was descending.

Mr. Macdonald told the committee that he represented ninety per cent, of the civic employees of the entire Province. PRODUCERS AND CONSUMERS COME TO GRIPS IN FIGHT OVER THE NEW MARKETING BILL

With milk producers' and consumers' representatives present from all over the Mainland, the fight for and against new British Columbia agricultural marketing legislation was renewed with greater vigor than ever before the Agricultural Committee of the Legislature to-day.

 Vancouver City Council members, led by Mayor Taylor, appeared before the committee to protest against the new law applying to the dairy industry. ARE LIQUOR VENDORS PAID ENOUGH? WHILE THE LEGISLATURE IN DIScussing the amendments to the Liquor Control

Act it might find it good business to consider the wages paid to liquor vendors, their assistants, and other employees of the Liquor Control Board who in any way are likely to come into personal touch with principals or agents of liquor concerns. It will be recalled that British Columbia entered into a semi-dry period in the Fall of 1917 with an official in charge of the Prohibition Act whose monthly salary worked out at $200. "Circumstances developed in a little more than twelve months afterwards which necessitated the appointment of a new Prohibition commissioner. His monthly salary was $300. When the Liquor Control Act went into operation in the Summer of 1921 a board of three commissioners was created. The chairman of this body received $6,500 a year and his two colleagues $5,500 a year each. After this organization had been disbanded the present commissioner was appointed in its stead at a salary of $12,000 a year.

Liquor vendors throughout the Province are paid $175 a month; their assistants in the store get varying amounts from $150 down to $120 a month. There is no distinction made between the chief official in the busier stores of Vancouver and Victoria and the employee who is responsible for all the business conducted in the smallest community.

There is no suggestion that these officials of the Liquor Control Board are objecting to this rate of pay. There is no suggestion that their standard of trustworthiness would be influenced in the least particular if their salaries were to be doubled. But it will be noted that when British Columbia tried its experiment with Prohibition, the head of the particular department of the public service who was charged with the administrative work of the Act was paid only $200 a month. The difference between the salary then paid, when the chief business of the Province was to keep liquor out, and that now paid to the principal official of the Liquor Control Board, with this market restored to the liquor men, is $800 a

The taxpayers did not object to these increases in salary. When they exchanged the Prohibition Act for the present law they demanded a first-class administration to attend to the new business. They were willing to pay for it. If for $17,500 a year three commissioners could give them good service and keep the Province free of liquor scandals, they were willing that this sum, or even more, should be paid. Nor when the time arrived to change the three-man board for a one-man board did they object to paying $12,000 to one official. They are still satisfied with Mr. Davidson. They would quite properly object to any reduction in his salary. He has given good service: he will be able to give better service when the Legislature has relieved the Government of its present association with the liquor business.

In this recognition that the man who accepts a very heavy responsibility, who is exposed to all sorts of suggestion from one of the most powerful interests in the world, should be paid sufficiently to put him out of reach of temptation, there would seem also to be a recognition of the necessity to place the $175-a-month man, the $120-a-month-man-who can be seen and talked to in the store at any time-in a stronger position than he is in at the present time.

INVESTING IN CANADA

MUCH HAS BEEN SAID AND WRITTEN in recent years about the economic penetration of this country by the United States and other foreign nations. Not a few inquiries also have been made as to what political effect the continued importation of capital, particularly from our neighbor to the South of the international boundary, eventually will have. Neither economic nor political expert is worrying about this phase of the inquiry. Canada must have capital, and as long as it is friendly capital, it will matter little from whence it comes. It is not necessary to repeat that she would prefer British money to foreign

The Financial Post Survey in its 1927 edition has compiled some interesting figures on this subject. It shows that the investments of foreign capital in this ninion now amount to no less a sum than $5,310,-000,000. It divides them as follows:

United States of America$3,016,000,000 United Kingdom 2,111,000,000 Other foreign 183,000,000 $5,310,000,000

Few countries in the world have offered such opportunity for the safe and profitable investment of capital as has Canada. And, in consequence, few countries have drawn such large accumulations of foreign capital as Canada has drawn in the development of her natural resources. The flow of foreign capital to the Dominion still continues, although this country is itself a large investor abroad. In the past three years, around half a billion dollars of American, British and other outside capital has come to Canada to be invested in the development of our natural resources and in the extension of the economic superstructure of the country, our railways, public services and so on. This hes brought the total investment of outside capital in Canada to over $5,000,000,000, a large amount, but not to be regarded as dangerously out of proportion to our total national wealth estimated a few years ago a: $22,000,000,000 and probably exceeding $25,-000,000,000 at the present time.

The figures throw some illumination upon the large investments of American capital in Canada since the end of the war. They have grown as follows:

It will be noted that British capital, while occupying a relatively less important position in Canada, has nevertheless continued to come to the Dominion in some volume and it is gratifying to note that the amount of British Capital in Canada is shown by the figures to have increased about $100,000,000 in the past three years, a figure that is confirmed by another estimate made recently by a British financier:

Amounts of foreign capital apart from British and American are small. The figures show some apparent decline between 1923 and 1926. While there has been this decline, it is probable that it has not been as great as statistics would seem to show. The 1923 figures of foreign capital in Canada were no doubt somewhat too generous, later data on the distribution of some of our railway securities having shown this to be the case

T.B. VETERANS' MEETING

FROM TIME TO TIME THE TUBERCUlous Veterans' Post of the Canadian Legion arranges public meetings in order that the general public may have an opportunity of learning something about the toll which tuberculosis continues to exact from our population. Medical experts discuss the various phases of the disease and their addresses are highly instructive. Another of the series will be held in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce to-night when Dr. Lapp, medical superintendent at the provincial institution at Tranquille, and Dr. Lamb, of the Department of Public Health, will address the gathering. Vocal selections will enliven the proceedings and nurses of the Victorian Order of Nurses will act as ushers. The members of the Post ask for a good attendance so that a larger measure of public interest in this important subject may be kindled.

Little more than thirty years ago at home and abroad the minds of most middle-aged people born in the earlier half of the nineteenth century were passing through what we may call a deadpeople born in the earlier half of the nineteenth century were passing through what we may call a deadwater mood. Civilization, they said, was slowing dewn. It was frequently declared, even by some learned professors, that the heroic age of discovery was over. Science would go on filling in details as astronomers gradually fill in their star-maps, and, of course, there would be no end of small, ingenious improvements. But no more fundamental alterations were to be expected in the world of ideas; no startling additions to man's insfruments and contrivances.

This was what was quite widely said and helleved somewhere about 1850.

The last few weeks, around Victoria and Vancouver, we have heard much blowing of trumpets from some of our public men, who profess to be very anxious in protecting the interests of the consuming public, but it seems to me, that milk is the only foodstuff that they have interested themselves in. Do these men realize that every dollar spent for milk by the larger poorer families, that at least $5 is spent for bread, especially at the present exorbitant price, and has been for years.

To prove my statement, how is it that the thirty-two ounce loaf, made

This same bread is made by the barker's union employees, roceiving $15 for their forty-eight-hour week, while the sixteen ounce loaf tight hard back sheep of the family usually provide the akeletorn for the closet. However, the form was not originally an opprobrious one. A black sheep is not different, though not less worthly, than his kind. When a black sheep is born in a flock it is in the nature of an accident, aithough there is a scientific explanation of his coloration. The sheep is not unlike the rest of, the flock except in appearance. However, white being the symbol-of-purity-and-black, of sorrow, and of evil, the person of quastionable virtue is always referred to as a "black sheep."

Now the rents in any particular district for the same class of land or the same class of dwelling vary very little. One acquainted with restal values or land returns can tell you almost to a dollar what such a house or such a piece of land would rent for.

This then is our basis. By addition we arrive at the total rental and as we know the total amount of taxes required for all purposes the ratio which the latter bears to the former gives us our scale or percentages, i.e.:

Total taxes for all purposes over total rental, equal scale or percentage. If the total taxes are $200,000 and the total rental $1,000,000, then our scale is 20 per cent. This is only an example.

What about our vacant lots? Just this. Blocks of lots of three acres or over used for agricultural purposes should be classed as aereage as at present and taxed on a rental basis; single lots on an average of the rental basis; single lots on an average of the rental basis for the district according to their area. This would make lots without buildings a little higher than lots with buildings.

To carry the scheme into effect I should suggest the appointment of a rental board of three members, one from the outer wards and a chairman, with a casting vote in case of disagreement, appointed by the Government. The members from the wards might be the Reeve and one councillor or two councillors.

Before it could be introduced it would, of course, require the sanction of Parliament and that of the course.

Combine of Liquor Manufac-turers Penalizing Province, Is Charge

Declaration by R. H. Pooley, Leader of the Opposition, that British Columbia was being charged higher prices than Aus-tralia or South Africa for whisky by a Scottish distilleries combine drew a sharp denial from Attor-ney-General Manson in the Legis-lature yesterday. Mr. Pooley persisted in his statement, saying he had received the facts by cable from South Africa and, if the Attor-ney-General would let him have his recent invoices, he would test the statement.

In his speech on the second reading of the Liquor Amendment Bill, Mr. Pooley favored the former custom of making available in the annual report, the prices paid for whisky in Sectiand. This, he said, had been abandoned by the present Attorney-General.

Scotland. This, he said, had been abandoned by the present Attorney. General.

The discussion opened up the whole question of prices. Mr. Pooley said that the purchasing agent had not had a free hand, as British Columbia was paying more for liquor than other countries.

The Attorney-General said his information was all to the contrary.

"The statement was made in Winnipeg a year ago," said Mr. Pooley.

Mr. Pooley asked why the tabulated list of prices, formerly given in the reports, was not now given.

The Attorney-General replied that the distillers complained that this was giving information away to their detriment.

Mr. Posley—This statement, in Winnipeg, was that information had reached the Legislature of Manitoba, that the higher rates charged to Canada might be due to the conference of liquor commissioners of Manitoba, British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

"They say the difference is five katchewan.

"They say the difference is five shillings a case in favor of Australia and South Africa." continued the Opposition Lender. "They were contemplating action to have interprevincial liquor shipments sent in bond, under the care of federal officers, to prevent diversion. The opinion was expressed in Manitoba that future generations would think Canadians crazy for the price they were paying for whisky."

DISTILLERS COMPLAIN

"The distillers complained that the nformation we were giving away prejudiced them, as they were selling to export houses at a higher price had not us. We protested, but we were satisfied so long as we got the enefit of the lower price," said Mr. Manson.

benefit of the lower price," said Mr. Manson.

"My information from South Africa is that they get it for ten shillings a case cheaper there," said Mr. Pooley.

"My information is that they are charging the same price to us as to South Africa and Australia, and that was only a short time ago," Mr. Manson retorted.

"That does not explain for my satisfaction why we are not allowed to see the prices, as we used to," Mr. Pooley affirmed. "If my friend will let me have copy of his invoices is shall check it by cable with South Africa and we will see what is correct.

shall check it by cable with South Africa and we will see what is correct.

"I shall be very pleased to give them, and I shall cable to Glasgow about it," Mr. Manson agreed.

"In spite of what the whisky combine says the public are entitled to know what the Government is being charged," said Mr. Pooley. "It is a matter affecting the public accounts, if the distillers' combine want to tell us how we are to run the liquor business, my answer to that is that there are other distillers with whom we can deal."

Speaking on the general principle of the liquor bill Mr. Pooley said it was an admission by the Government that their administration of liquor was a failure. He could well remember the plea of the Attorney-General two years ago, when the Liquor Commission was being set up, that a free hand should be given. He would not admit to-day that he had had a free hand.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL While the bill proposed that the administration should be in the hands of a commissioner for a period of ten years, to be responsible solely to the Legislature, he noticed that the Attorney-General was still intending to administer the Provincial Police, who had charge of the Act. Recalling the Consgrvatives' original policy that liquor should be under a commission of three members, divorced entirely from politics, the Opposition Leader said that the people decided on Government control. "Was the present proposal not a departure from that system?" he asked.

Mrs. A. B. Jr. writes:

"I would like some advice about my baby. He is 4½ months old and only weighs a little over eight pounds. I nurse him and also give him a bottle. I don't have any regular feeding time. Do you think I should have?

"FAUST" IN PICTURE FORM PROVES TO BE REAL SCREEN EPIC

"Faust," glamorous, virile, romantic and tragic, has finally reached the screen in an UFA production directed by F. W. Murnau, released through Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, now playing at the Dominion Theatre. Emil Jannings gives a stirring performance as Mephisto, and Gosta Ekman is a marvel of make-up and character portrayed in the title part, but to Camilla Horn, a screen "find," must go the histronic honors. She makes of Marguerite a pathetic, lovable girl of human quality, who sins and suffers for love and is redeemed by it when the end comes. Yvette Guilbert, distinguished French discuss, appears as Martha.

REALISTIC STORY OF HOLLYWOOD SHOWING ON PLAYHOUSE SCREEN

Quite some comedy comes from the costume contrasts of Patsy Ruth Miller, as Betty and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as Hal in the roles of youthful screen extras in "Broken Hearts of Hollywood," the Warner Brothers epic of Filmtown at the Playhouse.

Hal, winner of a movie popularity contest, back home, is given a small part as a cowboy at the Acme Studios, while Betty, also a contest winner, is given a part as a harem girl. Both go to the wardrobe department where their costumes are obtained. Betty seeing Hal's heavy costume of chaps, spurs and sombrero, laughingly joshes him about it, telling him he will reast.

Farrell MacDonald, as Joe Heiler, father of "The Family Upstairs." MacDonald will be remembered for his pertrayal of Corporal Casey in "The Iron Horne."

The father of the family runs into no end of difficulties. The son is one of those chaps who simply has catalogued work as a bitter enemy. The boy would rather be a "shelk" and star on the dance floor. The scenes where the father tries to arouse his son from hed are mirth-provoking in the extreme.

TALKING MOVIES LEAD TO COURT WAR

New York, Feb 15—Imminent possibility of a "talking movie war" was forecast in statements to the Associated Press to-day.

There are apparently four companies involved in patient disputes with another company using a device based on a different theory on neutral territory.

The Radio Corporation of America, in association with the General Electric Company and the Westinghouse Electric and manufacturing Company, is sponsor of the latest talking movie apparatus. The De Forest Phonofilms, the Fox-Chase Company and the Federal Telegraph Company of California each sponsor other devices operated on a more or less similar principle. The Vitaphone Company uses a record for the talking part of its talking movies instead of photographing sound on the movie film as the others do, and so is out of the controversy.

The California company reently announced it had obtained basic patents which gave it exclusive rights to certain features of the filming of pictures and sound. New York, Feb. 15.—The manager and the entire cast of the "Virgin Man," one of three Broadway plays which were raided in last week's stage clean-up campaign, were held for trial in special sessions yesterday on a charge of violating the law against indecent stage productions. Bail of the eight defendants was continued.

Those arraigned were William Duga, co-author and manager, and Dorothy Hall, Virginia Smith, Don Dillaway, Betty Alden, Joseph Baird, Paul Clare and Charles Horn.

Magistrate Renaud, in the little old-fashloned Jefferson market court, pronounced the ruling which held them for trial. The court room was filled with actors, stage patrons, star worshippers, young women, middleaged women, reformers and policemen.

Mr. Jones—How about income, tax reductions?

Mr. Jones—How about succession Duty reductions?

Mr. McKengle—How about the personal property tax?

Premier Oliver—I think I owe them a debt of gratitude for pointing out how we reduced the taxes on personal property and incomes.

Major Lyons—At our suggestion.

The Premier asserted that in 1925 the income tax on $5,000, allowing the ordinary exemptions, amounted to $76; In 1926 it was $61, and under the proposed legislation would be $55. This showed how the Government had been reducing the income tax for the past three years.

Mr. Jones—How about the province and postage stamps, etc. $47,245.78; total. $45,754.94.

The speaker briefly touched upon the function of a solarium as distinct from that of an orthopaedic hospital, the former being of value as a preventorium and as a place in which children could undergo the long and wearying process of convalescence in the happiest and most beneficial surroundings, while at the same time receiving their schooling.

TRIBUTE TO DR. WACE

Sir Richard Lake, after referring with much regret to the enforced absence through illness of Dr. Wace, paid warm tributes to his untiring and devoted services to the Solarium project. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Dr. Wace for his work in the interests of the crippled children.

Votes of thanks were also passed to the honorary suditor, Reginald Genn; the honorary solicitor, Alexis Martin; and to the press.

Canadian Pro League Also Arranges Play-offs; St. Pats Sold: Hockey Results

Toronto, Feb. 15.—Discussion of play-off dates, ratification of the sale of the St. Patrick Hockey Club, Toronto to the Maple Leaf Hockey Club, also of this city, and the granting to Detroit and Chicago teams of territorial rights, were the principal items of business discharged at the meeting of the National Hockey League here yesterday.

The purchase price of the St. Pats was $160,000 and this included the franchise, players and assets of the old club.

Alex. Romerit, former Granite star and well known in local lockey circles, has been appointed manager. The granting of territorial rights to the two United States teams enables them to pass on the application of any one attempting to obtain a franchise to operate a team-for these cities in the league. Similar rights are held by every other club in the league, but when Detroit and Chicago entered the circuit last year they were not given this right.

Until 1921 the winning of the 18.2 tittle by Hoppe was simply an annual event in the sports world. No one for a minute doubted it. Things are different now.

With only a little more than a year, the championship has changed hands four times, finally to be again won by Hoppe.

Jake Schaefer, the titleholder, was beaten by the Belgian star, Edouard Horemans. In his first defense of the title, Horemans lost to the brilliant German player. Eric Hagenlacher. Now comes Hoppe to take the crown for the "steenth time."

Recently Hoppe entered the three-cushion carom field. In his match with the champion. Bob Cannefax, he was giving the titleholder such a trimming that Cannefax, in a fit of rage, cut the cloth, for which he drew a suspension.

Vancouver, Feb. 15.—"What fighter do I think is the most deserving of a chance at the heavy-weight title? Perhaps I could have answered the question quite readily a few months ago, but to-day the situation is vastly different. The crop of heavy-weights which is shooting up has created a great deal of interest in the game and I think when I defeated Jack Dempsey it was the signal for the development of a new school of boxers."

Gene Tunney, king of heavy-weights, in an interview here yesterday thus sized up the situation. He discussed the merits of all leading contenders and was inclined to give Jim Maloney and Jack Delaney the edge, although he figures Jack Sharkey a real fighter. Apparently he doesn't incline to the opinion that Dempsey will stage a comeback.

Giving the closing hour of its reg-diar session last night to the fur-her consideration of estimates the City Council struck $5,215 from ap-propriations asked for the portion under review, and added $1,000 for a let reduction of $4,215. As it was he parks and boulevards estimates hiefly under review, and these are ome $8,000 over the sum asked last ear, the reduction was not considered final in the votes tentatively passed.

Alderman John Harvey, chairman of the parks committee, secured the support of Acting-Mayor Marchant, last year's chairman, for the added appropriations asked this year. The council reduced from $3,500 to $3,000 a vote for miscellaneous parks and beaches. A proportion of the sum will be spent at Mason Street, where the city has taken over a new park area in the last year, by a transfer of property designed to remove a congested housing district.

The sum of $7,000 was voted for Beacon Hill Park, not including a further sum of $1,000 awas voted for the Improvement of the Douglas Street approach to the park. The new bandstand is to be painted, and the old one turned into an aviary at a cost of $350. The sum of $1,000 was provided as the city's share of the new Kiwanis wading pool, to be placed at Central Park.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Getting down to the fire department the council reduced to $1,500 the estimated cost of fire alarm extensions this year; while $2,000 asked for a new car for the fire chief was cut to $1,500. In the city electric light department $4,000 was set aside for electrodes, lamps and globes; $1,700 for rectifier tubes and $1,400 for plant maintenance. New clothing for the personnel of the department was set at $3,517, this being the site-nate year of, heavier cost for uniforming the department. Smaller votes for supplies in the fire department carried without alteration. By consent all salary items were tabled for a special civic salaries session to be held later on in the month. Making provision for initial work at the Graham estate, taken over by the city last year, the council allotted $1,000 as the sum to be spent there is year.

DDED EXPENDITURE ADDED EXPENDITURE

Aiderman P. R. Brown, chairman of the finance committee, cautioned the council that several added expenditures would be inescapable, and that care would have to be taken if the budget was to be kept down. He moved a blanket resolution which would reduce the parks vote to $23,000, or $4,500 less than asked. This was seconded by Alderman J. B. Clearibue, but was not put to the meeting. Actual expenditures last year under the heading of parks were $19,291. Further opportunity for revision would be given, stated Aiderman Marchant, acting as chairman of the estimates committee, in closing the discussion.

The figures relating to resources and earning power are equally satisfactory.

The high quality and profitable character of our investments has again been demonstrated. As a result of continued reduction in prevailing rates of interest, and of satisfactory industrial conditions, there has been a further rise in the market values of our long-term bonds and of our preferred and other stocks. The appraisal of our securities made by the Government Insurance Department shows that the excess of market values over cost has increased during the year by $6,894,266.26. In addition, the sum of $1,729,364.52 has been realized as net profit from the redemption or sale of municipal debentures and other securities which had risen to high premiums. The rate of interest earned on the mean invested assets has also risen to the remarkable figure of 6.69 per cent, as the result of substantial dividend increases, bonuses, and stock privileges received in connection with many of our holdings.

The quality of the investments listed in the assets may be judged from the fact that on 99.55 per cent of the bonds and on 99.71 per cent of the preferred stocks, not one dollar of interest or dividend is in arrear for even one day. On our common stocks the dividends now being received are greatly in excess of the dividends payable on the same stocks at time of purchase.

The total surplus earned during the year amounted to 0,457,077.28. From this the following appropriations have been

The sum of $2,000,000 has been deducted from the official valuation of our securities to provide for possible fluctuations in market values. This raises the amount set aside for this purpose to $5,000,000. The book value of our Head Office building has been written down by a further sum of $250,000 though it certainly could not be replaced at even its original cost.

An additional amount of $400,000 has been set aside to provide for greater longevity of annuitants. The total held under this heading, in excess of Government requirements, is now $1,500,000.

The reserves on the newly acquired business of the Cleveland Life, and on other reassured policies, have been raised to the same high standard as that used for the valuation of habilities

To our policyholders, profits have been paid or allotted during the year to the amount of $9,235,526.80.

After making these deductions and allocations an addition of $5,371,564.56 has been made to the undivided profits. The surplus over all liabilities, contingency accounts and capital stock, now stands at $34.011.565.25.

For six years in succession we have increased the profits to participating policyholders. During this period our profit scale has been doubled. While the assurances in force have multiplied two and a half times since 1920, the amount paid or allotted as profits to policyholders has multiplied five-and a half times. Col. He predicted that the strength of stock and bond prices and the ease of short term money rates would probably prove forerunners of further gains in trade.

Although call money tightened today to 4½ per cent. after holding at an unvarying rate of 4 per cent. for several weeks, this did not change sentiment regarding the fundamental soundness of credit conditions.

On the contrary, it add confirmation to the belief that the general business was showing healthy seasonal expansion, requiring increasing amounts of money for its transaction. Instead of exercising restraint to stock market activity, therefore, the stiffening of demand rates was interpreted bullishly and representative stocks displayed a confident tone most of the day.

But, leaving England to fight with her own problems, there are hard problems facing Canada, Mr. Jamies son went on.

One problem facing Canada was the drain on its resource of manhood, the speaker pointed out. According to figures printed in Iron Age, the publication of the steel industries in the East, 11,000 Canadians left Canada for the United States in October last year.

CHAPTER XXXI

Dolores and Buddy left London on the Thursday morning.

Dolores ran in to Jennifer for a mement to say goodbye.

"You'd better not come up, or see us off," she said apologetically. "It will only upset Buddy. Don't think me unkind."

Jennifer blushed.

"Of course not! I understand perfectly,"

From her window she watched them drive away with an absurd quantity of luggage on top of the car, and she caught a glimpse of Buddy's golden head as the taxicab turned the corner.

It seemed lonely when they had gone. Although lately she had not seen quite so much of them, the knowledge that the flat upstaifs was empty accentuated their loss.

Nicodemus meewed piteously for haif a day, then resigned himself to his fate and went to sleep in Jennifer's favorite chair.

She watched him with envious eyes.

She seemigate for a ment of this man and asked thoughtlessly: "Are you married?"

It am one of those who, through my own fault, missed the road to happiness years ago, Miss Fry."

She looked at him with renewed interest, struck by the infinite sadness of his eyes.

Joey had overheard what he said and caught his word up sharply.

"Rubhish! There's no such road!" she declared. "It's all just humber to have taken, and yet if we could go back and try it again we should find that it was only another wrong turning after all." She looked at Winter with an angry, challenging expression in her china-blue eyes, as if his words had hurt her.

"Do you agree with that, Mr. Winter?" Jennifer asked.

He shook his head, smiling gravely.

SUMERS COME TO GRIPS FEARS COMMITTEE IN FIGHT OVER THE NEW MARKETING BILL

A. McD. Paterson, Liberal member for Delta, said he could not see terminology he quoted: "A committee may delegate to any executive sub-committee of one or more such matters as may require prompt dispatch, or may be more expeditiously dealt with in that maner." Any court would hold that that constituted a monopoly."

Some facts about the proportion of milk suppiled by the two predominant units in the trade were given by Mr. Williams. The Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association suppiled 11,000 gallons daily, and the independent supplies 6,000 gallons. The health officer had informed the Vancouver council that the quality of the Fraser Valley milk was no higher than that supplied by the independents. He foresaw a deterioration of quality if a monopoly were created, and illustrated this by saying that a good deal of milk had had to be destroyed by the Fraser Valley cooperatives, owing to over-supply, or because it was not up to standard. If absolute control were created, he could see the genesis of a new danger here.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

Astrologers read this an evil day

"Would it overcome your objec-tions if the consumers were repre-sented on the committee?" asked John Catherwood, member for

Mr. Williams—I am not willing to agree that the committee should control milk at all, whether it be a large committee or a small one.

Mr. Catherwood—You said the City Council are interested in getting better and cheaper milk; would it not add to your costs if you instituted the collecting and testing depot proposed by the council?

Mr. Williams—Tour chief interest is in securing better milk.

J. W. Jones—You want section two changed.

OPPOSES MONOPOLY

Monopoles are formed to increase prices."

Robert McKee acted as chief spokesman for the Vancouver Board of Trade delegation. He said that while the beard was supporting the general principles as outlined by the City Council's delegation, it was more particularly opposed on broad principles to the type of coercive legislation which was proposed in the bill. The board was anxious to co-operate with the farmers at all times, and had demonstrated so in the past, but it would be very detrimental to have the impression ge abroad that such legislation could be passed here.

He believed that the Fraser Valley and independents uppliers, was advanced by A. Toon, secretary of the independents uppliers, and two for the consumers.

"It is a victous type of legislation that forces a man to market the dictation of some other person or body," he declared. He also doubted whether the legislation would stand in the courts, his conception being that it was contrary to the Combines Act.

legislating in favor of such organizations.

It would appear, he went on, that seventy-five per cent of the Fraser Valley farmers were already acting co-operatively, and were marketing the bulk of their product in the Vancouver market in the shape of milk, cream, butter, cheese and other products, while twenty-five per cent were supplying liquid milk only. The result was that the majority wished to get the control of the product of the minority.

The bill was so drastic in its scope that a farmer by the side of the road could not sell milk to tourists, he said.

The Chairman—It is not the purpose to interfers with such cases.

Mr. Spencer—That may be true, but the principle is there, and he must come under the provisions of the act.

Mr. Bruhn—If it was intended to exempt such cases, then it should be so stated in the bill. If it is not you will have bootlegging of milk.

"The Vancouver City Solicitor does not know what he is talking about," was the comment of W. L. Macken, director of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers. "The ignorance displayed by speakers here regarding the milk business is disturbing and appalling." he added as he pro- was opened there would be an influence of the producers. FARMER DROWNED

On the proposal for the municipalization of milk, as put forward by the Vancouver City Solicitor, Mr. Macken said that his association would welcome the health authorities of the city having their representative in their testing equipment, and they would pay them. The Fraser Valley had its own experts for testing and bacteris, and was prepared to submit to any form of regulation. The City Council did not grant the couriesy of a reply when they offered to confer with it on the question of the recent rise in price, he declared.

"I have nursed the baby and he declared.

"I have nursed the baby and washed the dishes, and had the dog set on me, in my advocacy of the farmers of the Fraser Valley joining our organization," he said, in detailing production costs on the dairy farm, which did not leave, on the average, a higher return than $1,000 a year for a farmer and his family.

Others were from residents of the municipality which testified to the good character and popularity of the deposed chief constable.
An application for chief constable was received from Constable Acreman.
After some argument it was decided that he be appointed, effective from March 1.
D. Hodnet, who was honorably discharged some time ago when the police board cut down its staff for economy's sake, was appointed to Constable Acreman's duties.
Recommendations were passed last night urging the reduction of police officers' salaries and the allowance for the maintenance of the chief constable's automobile.
Commissioner Painter argued that there was no need of a chief of police in the municipality, and that the automobile was a luxury they might well abandon.

MACDONALD, WILLIAM McDougall, Oliver Mowat, Charles Tupper, Samuel Leonard Tilley, Adams G. Archibald, COLONEL GRAY, GEORGE COLES - Fathers of Confederation.

WHAT an inspiration to Canadians of today is the memory of these men, who welded the scattered communities of Victoria's subjects in British North America into one magnificent whole, and laid down the basic principles of the Empire's largest unit!

We honour their names now in this Diamond Jubilee year of the Confederation, which they achieved by forming a Dominion from "sea to sea.

Presiding over the Conference which resolved on Union was Etienne Pascal Taché, a veteran of the War of 1812, who expressed the loyalty of his fellowcountrymen when he said, "The last gun to be fired for British supremacy in America would be fired by a French-Canadian."

John A. Macdonald was a commanding figure in the Conference, with his insight into character and his knowledge of British institutions. By his side were George Brown, of the Toronto Globe, a "dyed-in-thewool" Liberal who forgot party in his desire for Union; T. Alexander Galt, master of finance; Thomas D'Arcy McGee, poet, historian, orator; William McDougall, distinguished son of a loyalist; Oliver Mowat, a legal giant, who afterwards became Premier of Ontario; Charles Tupper, master debater; his political opponent, Samuel Leonard Tilley, a power in the Maritime Provinces; Adams G. Archibald, great parliamentarian.

These are the men who foresaw the necessity of a transcontinental railway that would connect sea with sea, and their vision became a reality in the subsequent achievement of the Canadian Pacific Railway.
